Throughout the process, NIST held 23 public meetings and provided multiple opportunities for the public to review and comment on drafts of the reports. In addition, all of the reports were reviewed by an external, non-NIST NCST advisory committee. In the end, NIST released final versions of the 43 reports on the WTC towers, totaling some 10,000 pages, on …

After the cases have been allocated to the panels, the briefs and excerpts of record in each case are distributed to each of the judges scheduled to hear the case. The documents are usually received in the judges' chambers twelve weeks prior to the scheduled time for hearing, and it is the policy of the Court that each judge read all of the excerpts from the briefs and excerpts of record in each case before the hearing begins.
